The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Give us grace, O Lord, to answer readily the call of our Savior Jesus Christ and proclaim to all people the Good News of his salvation, that we and the whole world may perceive the glory of his marvelous works; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

(Please be seated.)

The Old Testament Lesson

Reader: A Reading from the Prophet Isaiah.

9:1-4

There will be no gloom for those who were in anguish. In the former time he brought into contempt the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, but in the latter time he will make glorious the way of the sea, the land beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the nations.

The people who walked in darkness
have seen a great light;
those who lived in a land of deep darkness-- on them light has shined.

You have multiplied the nation,
 you have increased its joy;
 they rejoice before you
 as with joy at the harvest,
 as people exult when dividing plunder.
 For the yoke of their burden,
 and the bar across their shoulders,
 the rod of their oppressor,
 you have broken as on the day of Midian.

Reader            The Word of the Lord.
 People            Thanks be to God.

(The congregation remains seated for the psalm.)

Psalm 27:1, 5-13

(The word or syllable following the vertical line is the first pitch change; hyphens split a word on two pitches; italics specify the second pitch change; underscored syllables/words are sung on the final pitch.)

The LORD is my | light and my sal - vation; * whom then | shall I fear?

1        The LORD is my | light and my salvation; *
           whom then | shall I fear?

The LORD is the | strength of my life;
           of whom | shall I be a - fraid?

5        One thing have I asked of the LORD; | one thing I seek; ***
           that I may dwell in the house of the | LORD all the days of my life;

6        To behold the fair | beauty of the LORD ***
           and to | seek him in his temple.

- 7 For in the day of trouble he shall keep me | safe in his shelter; *
he shall hide me in the secrecy of his dwelling and set me | high up - on a rock.
- 8 Even now he | lifts up my head *
above my | enemies round a - bout me.
- 9 Therefore I will offer in his dwelling an oblation
with | sounds of great gladness; *
I will sing and make | music to the LORD.
- 10 Harken to my voice, O | LORD, when I call; *
have | mercy on me and answer me.
- 11 You speak in my heart and say, | “Seek my face.” *
Your face, LORD, | will I seek.
- 12 Hide | not your face from me, *
nor turn away your | servant in displeasure.
- 13 You have been my helper; | cast me not away; *
do not forsake me, O | God of my salvation.

The Epistle

Reader A reading from Paul's first letter to the Corinthians.

1:10-18

Now I appeal to you, brothers and sisters, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you be in agreement and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and the same purpose. For it has been reported to me by Chloe's people that there are quarrels among you, my brothers and sisters. What I mean is that each of you says, "I belong to Paul," or "I belong to Apollos," or "I belong to Cephas," or "I belong to Christ." Has Christ been divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul? I thank God that I baptized none of you except Crispus and Gaius, so that no one can say that you were baptized in my name. (I did baptize also the household of Stephanas; beyond that, I do not know whether I baptized anyone else.) For Christ did not send me to baptize but to proclaim the gospel, and not with eloquent wisdom, so that the cross of Christ might not be emptied of its power.

For the message about the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.

Reader      The Word of the Lord.

People      Thanks be to God.

*Sequence Hymn 661    They cast their nets in Galilee Georgetown
(stanzas 1 and 2 before the Gospel reading; stanzas 3 and 4 after the reading)

The Gospel    (Please stand as you are able.) Matthew 4:12-23

Deacon      The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People      Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When Jesus heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew to Galilee. He left Nazareth and made his home in Capernaum by the sea, in the territory of Zebulun and Naphtali, so that what had been spoken through the prophet Isaiah might be fulfilled:

“Land of Zebulun, land of Naphtali, on the road by the sea, across the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles—
the people who sat in darkness
have seen a great light,
and for those who sat in the region and shadow of death light has dawned.”

From that time Jesus began to proclaim, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven has come near.”

As he walked by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea—for they were fishermen. And he said to them, “Follow me, and I will make you fish for people.” Immediately they left their nets and followed him. As he went from there, he saw two other brothers, James son of Zebedee and his brother John, in the boat with their father Zebedee, mending their nets, and he called them. Immediately they left the boat and their father, and followed him.

Jesus went throughout Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom and curing every disease and every sickness among the people.

The Rev. Greg Farrand

Affirmation of Faith (Please stand as you are able.)

We believe in God who is older than eternity and younger than our next breath;
who is beyond describing
yet knows us all by name;
who inspires faith,
yet cannot be contained by religion.

We believe in Jesus Christ, flesh of our flesh, bone of our bone;
he came in the body to give worth to every human life.
He touched the untouchable,
loved the unlovable,
and endured slander, persecution and death.
But the third day he rose again,
to continue his work through us,
until the end of time.

We believe in the Holy Spirit of God, who longs within our souls for wholeness and peace,
who weeps with the broken and weary,
and empowers us for healing, reconciliation and hope.

We believe that God is with us,
before us, behind us, above us and within us.
We rejoice that nothing can ever separate us from the love of God,
made known in Christ Jesus, our Lord.
Amen.

Celebrant

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.

Offertory Sentence

The Holy Communion

BCP 361

*Offertory Anthem: Have you heard God's voice?

Jacqui G. Jones (b. 1982)
arr. Frederick Chatfield (b. 1950)

Have you heard God's voice; has your heart been stirred? Are you still prepared to follow?
Have you made a choice to remain and serve, though the way be rough and narrow?

Refrain: Will you walk the path that will cost you much and embrace God's love and sorrow? Will you trust in One who entrusts to you the disciples of tomorrow?

Will you use your voice; will you not sit down when the multitudes are silent?
Will you make a choice to stand your ground when the crowds are turning violent?

Refrain

Will you watch the news with the eyes of faith and believe it could be different?
Will you share your views using words of grace? Will you leave a thoughtful imprint?

Refrain

In your city streets will you be God's heart? Will you listen to the voiceless?
Will you stop and eat, and when friendships start, will you share your faith with the faithless?

Refrain

Have you heard God's voice; has your heart been stirred?

*Doxology (sung by the congregation)

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is truly right, and good and joyful, to give you thanks, all-holy God, source of life and fountain of mercy.

You have filled us and all creation with your blessing and fed us with your constant love; you have redeemed us in Jesus Christ and knit us into one body. Through your Spirit you replenish us and call us to fullness of life.

Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with the faithful of every generation, we lift our voices with all creation as say:

Setting from A Community Mass; Richard Proulx (1937-2010)

The people stand or kneel.

The Celebrant continues

Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love. You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace.

But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people.

Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation. Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: "Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ's Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say:

People and Celebrant

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

BCP 364

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated bread.

Celebrant	Be known to us, Lord Jesus,
People	in the breaking of the bread.

Sharing of the Bread and Wine

Please make your way forward for communion. If you are unable to come forward, signal to the clergy, or let another worshipper know, and communion will be brought to you.

Most Sundays at the 10:30 service, a minister is available at the railing of the side (candle) chapel to offer prayers for healing. If you would like these personal prayers offered for you, please go to the chapel after receiving communion. You may choose to share the reason you are requesting these prayers, or not, as you prefer.

Prayer for Those Worshipping at Home

Celebrant

Loving God, we also pray for those joining us in worship from home. Though they cannot share this bread and wine in person, we thank you that your Spirit joins us as one body in Christ. Bless them with your grace and presence, that they also may be strengthened to serve you in love. Amen.

Prayer for Eucharistic Visitors

(If there is a commissioning of a eucharistic visitor, the following will be said by the celebrant and congregation.)

Celebrant

In the name of this congregation, we send you forth bearing these holy gifts, that those to whom you go may share with us in the communion of Christ's body and blood.

The Sacraments of the Church & the Baptismal Covenant
with The Rev. Greg Farrand & Bishop Anne Hodges-Copple

A deep dive into Baptism and Eucharist as the foundation of Christian life, an exploration of the Baptismal Covenant and the Apostles' Creed, and why Confirmation, Reception, and Reaffirmation matter—not as hoops to jump through, but as moments of intentional commitment in a life of discipleship.

All are welcome—whether you're preparing for the February 15 bishop's visit or simply want to deepen your understanding of our shared faith.

After our 10:30 service, we will share lunch in Johnson Hall. We need St. Lukers to bring plenty of food, as we expect a large crowd! Please deliver your food to Johnson Hall before 10 a.m. Sunday. All food will need to be plated and arranged. We will need help with cleaning up after lunch.

Food suggestions: Any food you would like to prepare or purchase for a lunch meal

- Sweets of any kind (brownies, small cupcakes, cookies, doughnuts)

Two other important upcoming Sundays:

- February 8: Parish Annual Meeting, 9 a.m. in Johnson Hall
- February 15: Bishop's Visit with Bishop Anne Hodges-Copple, both services
  - Adult Forum that day: St. Luke's Pride and Diversity Ministry will offer a presentation for Black History Month

Photos for Online Church Directory: Today in the Kramer Room

In December, 27 St. Lukers had their photo taken for our online church directory. The directory is an "app" that is easy to set up on your phone. It allows other church members to find your name, contact information, and see a photo. This is a secure system where only church members have access. It is a great way to put name and face together and helps us to get to know one another better. So please, whether you have been around awhile, or are new, have your photo taken and get into the directory. Then, like in "Cheers," everyone will know your name.

St. Luke's Hikers: Saturday, January 31, 2026, Blackwood Farm Park

Join your friends from St. Luke's at 10 a.m. on Saturday, January 31 (rain date February 7) as we hike a trail at the historic Blackwood Farm Park, 4215 NC 86 (just north of the intersection of Old NC 10 and New Hope Church Rd. on NC 86). If you want to carpool, be at church by 9:30. The park is close to the iconic New Hope Market where we can meet for lunch afterwards. The trail is not difficult, but good walking shoes and walking sticks are recommended. If you want to join in, please send a message to Karen Gray (hebegray2@gmail.com) or Bill Gutknecht (bill.grams@outlook.com).

We're going to Belize!

If you want to join the Belize mission team (February 20 - March 1, 2026), please sign up with the link in our ENews or see Wendy Cook. St. Luke's or non-St. Luke's people may join the team. We already have non-refundable rooms reserved and a good flight schedule, so come join us! The school has many construction needs, such as building a fence and siding, deck and railing repairs, and painting. They also want assistance in the classrooms, library, and computer lab. This will not be a medical trip. The trip cost of $1625 is due to St. Luke's by February and includes all meals, double-occupancy (air-conditioned!) lodging, incidental charges, and transportation once in Belize.

Chili Luncheon

St. Luke's is having an "all-you-can-eat" Chili luncheon fundraiser Saturday, February 14, at 12 p.m. Several of our parishioners have graciously agreed to provide chili for the occasion. Each parishioner is cooking their own chili recipe, so come taste and enjoy each recipe! Salad, bread, crackers, fruit, dessert, soft drinks, and iced tea will be available to enhance your lunch. Cost is $10.00 per person: you can pay by cash, credit card, Venmo, or PayPal. All proceeds will benefit the Rector's Discretionary Fund.

More About St. Luke's

Newcomers

If you are a newcomer, welcome! We are glad you are with us today. Please join us to say hello! Stop by the Newcomers table in the Sprague Room where you can learn more about St. Luke's, request a nametag, and maybe make a new friend.

St. Luke's Email- What's in it for you?

Our email list lets you stay up to date on parish news and fellowship events (weekly announcements email), stay aware of difficult times facing your fellow parishioners (weekly e-prayers email), and know when the latest issue of our monthly newsletter, Acts of Faith, is published. But, to paraphrase a saying, you have to be on it to get it! Make sure the parish coordinator has your email address, or subscribe automatically by going to our homepage at stlukesdurham.org, "Connect with us."

St. Luke's Calendar

Our parish calendar is up to date on our website at stlukesdurham.org. Weddings, baptisms, funerals, and other special services are scheduled by the clergy. The parish coordinator can help you arrange meetings or other events. Contact her at the church office at 919-286-2273.

Online Church Directory

St. Luke's parish directory is now exclusively online. To view and update your contact information or photo, or look up contact information for other parishioners, you must activate your account using the email address you placed on file with the parish office. If you are unsure what email you used, or need instructions for activating your account, please contact directory@stlukesdurham.org.

Ways To Give:

- Check (drop it in the plate or mail to our Parish Coordinator)
- Use PayPal with a debit/credit card via St. Luke's website (no need for a PayPal account)
- Push payments from your bank or credit union to the Church, just like bill-pay payments for your regular bills
- Initiate a Qualified Charitable Distribution from your IRA if you are 70 1/2 or older

Stewardship At St. Luke's

In the Episcopal Church, we ask our members to make a pledge, which is an estimate of giving in the coming year. It represents your commitment to God's work in this place. To make a pledge, please email our Parish Coordinator, Kaye Saunders, at parish-coord@stlukesdurham.org.

Submission of Materials for the Newsletter

The deadline for submitting materials for the monthly newsletter is the 20th of each month. Please email your materials to Babs Wise: babswise@gmail.com

Flowers for Worship

If you would like to provide flowers for a Sunday service, please sign up on the flowers calendar on the wall in the south narthex just outside the parish office. The price is $150.
